Result: Passed

- III. Occupational Injuries-Two injuries reported-one in October and another in December.
- IV. Safe Schools Grant Update-Architects should send new specifications for school entrance modifications by end of January. Our trauma counselor continues her work with families concerning mental health concerns. Grant money will continue this school year and through the 20-21 school year for the trauma counselor. Our technology department is researching the purchase of more cameras for schools.
- V. Workplace Safety Goals-Last year ten workers with compensation claims. Our goal is to reduce claims this year by 25%. Mr. Bubb and his maintenance group will continue as winter progresses to keep sidewalks and parking lots clear of ice and snow.
- VI. Future Projects-Relabeling the middle and high school hallways is a project for 20-21 school year. Committee is looking at options such as buying own equipment to make signs or to buy signs. Also, Mr. Little as reached out to Penn College on this project, but has received no response yet.
- VII. School Resource Officer Update-Mr. Egly reported that state police will be less involved in school issues as our school police officers have state approval to make arrests.
