

Student Expectations for Quarantined and Remote Learning

LTSD believes in supporting the safe and responsible use of all online and digital technologies for teaching and learning. This document provides details and expectations that students will be following for classroom instruction while in quarantine or during a time in which remote learning is in effect.

During a period of quarantine or remote learning, all students are responsible for continuing to practice positive digital citizenship by protecting and respecting their peers and teachers. Students must practice positive and productive behaviors when in an online learning environment. An online learning environment is still a classroom school behavior rules are to be followed just as expected in the regular educational setting.

Student Responsibilities and Expectations for Online Learning

- Choose a distraction-free workspace and be mindful about keeping distractions to a minimum, remembering that everyone can see you.
- Just as students are required to be on time and present at school, students are expected to be on time and virtually present via video and audio through ZOOM.
- Attendance is mandatory and will be taken at the beginning of each class. Students will be given times to log in for their courses via Zoom.
- Have materials ready and technology charged.
- The device's camera must be on. Students must have their camera turned on and use the camera to engage in the lesson activity in order to be counted as present.
- Wear appropriate clothing following your school dress code while on video conferencing.
- Make respectful comments, showing respect for all cultures, opinions, and viewpoints.
- Use the chat feature to contribute and show engagement.
- Students MUST complete and submit all assignments, practice activities, and bell ringer to their teacher.
- Assessments may be given while in an online learning environment options. Students are expected to follow all expectations shared by their teacher for completing and submitting.
- If you would like to speak or answer a question, use the online class participation feature (e.g., Raise Hand feature in Zoom)

- Audio or video recording with any technology (i.e., cellphones, cameras, recorders, and/or computer features) is prohibited unless there is prior approval from everyone involved.
- Bullying in any form, including cyberbullying, will not be tolerated.
- The teacher may send you to a breakout session, students must follow all school rules and expectations.
- Follow all LTSD Technology Use Guidelines
- Audio or video recording with any technology (i.e., cellphones, cameras, recorders, and/or computer features) is prohibited unless there is prior approval from everyone involved.
- This platform for learning is only available for students who are quarantined or their instruction has been assigned as remote.

FULLY REMOTE MODEL

Students and families will be given notice if we move to a fully remote learning environment. Remote means that students remain home for daily instruction Monday - Friday according to the school day.

- Teachers will teach remotely using Zoom for daily instruction.
- Students will access synchronous lessons at the beginning of class.

All student responsibilities and expectations on the first page apply to the Fully Remote model.
