LOYALSOCK TOWNSHIP COMMUNITY

Loyalsock Township High School is a comprehensive 9-12 public school located in Loyalsock Township, positioned on the east side of Williamsport, Pennsylvania. Servicing a population of 12,000, most of the approximately 500 students comprise middle socioeconomic status. A sizable number and variety of small businesses and retail establishments represent much of the economy within the school district's boundaries.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

LTHS provides students with a comprehensive, 21st century learning environment, providing enriching and well-rounded experiences. An Apple Distinguished School from 2019-2022, LTHS utilizes robust 1:1 iPad technology within a block-schedule (86-minute) environment and provides holistic opportunities for diverse student-learning styles. A competitive student body, LTHS students' work ethic has earned our school accomplishments as a consistent U.S. News & World Report Best High School recipient.
