

The Nissa D. Myers Scholarship Award

The Nissa D. Myers Scholarship was created to honor a 1992 graduate of the Loyalsock Township School District by her friends, colleagues, and family members. Nissa Myers served the students of Loyalsock Township as a First Grade Inclusion Teacher, Instructional Support Teacher and Kindergarten Teacher until her untimely death on June 26, 2001.

Nissa D. Myers dedicated her time and talents to building tomorrow's future by providing outstanding service to both the students and community of Loyalsock Township School District.

Nissa will be remembered for her many contributions, some of which include how she:
Modeled unconditional love for and acceptance of all students under her care.
Instilled within her students the love of learning and sense of self worth.
Demonstrated exemplary personal and professional attributes for all to emulate.
Worked cooperatively with students and staff to make a positive difference for the youth of this community.
