40TH Homecoming — CELEBRATION —

OCTOBER 16, 2026

40 YEARS OF HOMECOMING CELEBRATING A TRADITION. MAKING HISTORY.

In 1986, Loyalsock Township High School introduced a new tradition: Homecoming.

As recounted in the 1986–87 yearbook, seven senior girls were selected by their peers to represent the school's first Homecoming Court. Under the direction of Mrs. Bombroskie, the students selected their escorts, and the school voted for the queen, who would be crowned at the Loyalsock vs. Montoursville football game.

Forty years later, we celebrate that legacy and the generations of Lancers who have made Homecoming a memorable part of their high school years. As we honor four decades of homecoming queens and princesses, the 2026 celebration will mark another milestone: the crowning of a Homecoming King for the first time in the school's history, adding a new chapter to a tradition that continues to bring the Lancer community together.

Forty years of memories. A tradition that continues. A new moment in Lancer history.

PASSING THE CROWN: WELCOMING BACK OUR 2025 QUEEN

A time-honored Homecoming tradition at Loyalsock is for the previous year's queen to return and crown her successor. Tonight, we welcome back 2025 Homecoming Queen Kendall Eichensehr, who is currently attending the University of Kentucky, where she is studying communication sciences and disorders on the pre-speech path. We're pleased to have Kendall back at Loyalsock to help make this year's celebration special as we mark 40 years of Homecoming tradition!
